DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1 and 3-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over McGuire et al.'639 as set forth in the previous Office Action.

In reference to the applicant's arguments is the following: Although the applicant's attorney devoted much discussion to the contents of the application and the prior art reference, it appears that the only argument is contained on page 8 of the applicant's response where the attorney for the applicant states: "Even if several of the manual steps ...could now be automated, it would be necessary for some amount of manual entry...so it would not be obvious...". The Examiner strongly disagrees with this position. Firstly, the attorney for the applicant points out where within McGuire the need for such entry exists. Inasmuch as the current rejection is under 35 USC 103, and not 35 USC 102, the examiner acknowledges the obvious differences between the prior art and the application. Further, the reference is more than 20 years old and the advances that have taken place within the computer and e-commerce field (i.e., complete interfacing between systems) are so commonplace that to completely automate a previously semi-automated system would be well within one of ordinary skill in the art.

Applicant's arguments filed January 12, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
